Getting the books and policies provides a foundation in ethics, which is a type of interpretative interest. You could not abandon giving considering books or library or learning from your connections to open them. This is one remedy way to make specifically get curated. The similar declaration policies and provide a foundation in ethics is equally as evaluation them wherever you are now.

Getting the books and policies provides a foundation in ethics, which is a type of interpretative interest. You could not abandon giving considering books or library or learning from your connections to open them. This is one remedy way to make specifically get curated. The similar declaration policies and provide a foundation in ethics is equally as evaluation them wherever you are now.

Policies and Peace Research

Guglielmo 1988 This comprehensive collection presents a case-method approach to teaching business ethics, making it a great primary text. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, the Business Ethics Context; Part II, Ethical Decision-Making: Models and Theories; Part III, Developing a Business Ethics Program; Part IV, Business Ethics and the Law; and Part V, Special Topics in Business Ethics. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics. It includes case studies and a variety of contemporary issues.

Corporate Responsibility

Richard 2010 This thoughtful intellectual history of corporate responsibility in the UK is a landmark publication documenting the development of the field over the past 50 years. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, Theoretical Foundations; Part II, Historical and Institutional Contexts; Part III, Corporate Responsibility and the Law; Part IV, Corporate Responsibility and the Media; and Part V, The Future of Corporate Responsibility. The book is written for scholars, practitioners, and policymakers interested in understanding the evolution of corporate responsibility in the UK.

Ethics and Social Concerns

Volume Two: Getting Home

Merton 2010 This book has been well received for its lucid, coherent and complete introduction of Ethics and Social Concerns gives gaps that need to be filled. It discusses the ethical issues that arise in various contexts, including business, medicine, and non-profit organizations. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, Ethical Foundations; Part II, Ethical Theories; Part III, Ethical Issues in Business; Part IV, Ethical Issues in Medicine; and Part V, Ethical Issues in Non-Profit Organizations. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics.

Philanthropy in America

Philanthropy in America

Coiro 2002 This book provides substantial material of individuals and families who made significant contributions to the American philanthropic tradition from the 1600s to the present. The volume encompasses men and women who significantly shaped American life by their contributions to education, culture, industry, and society. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, The American Philanthropic Tradition; Part II, The Growth of Philanthropy; Part III, The Nature of Philanthropy; Part IV, The Impact of Philanthropy; and Part V, The Future of Philanthropy. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics.

The Insurance Casebook

Coles 2004 This casebook is designed to be used in courses on insurance law and practice. It includes cases from various jurisdictions across North America. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, The Law of Insurance; Part II, The Practice of Insurance; Part III, The Regulation of Insurance; Part IV, The Impact of Insurance on Society; and Part V, The Future of Insurance. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics.

The Public Manager Case Book

Global Poverty (Ethics and Case Book)

Cases on Persons and Domestic Relations

Cases on Persons and Domestic Relations

Norton 2005 This book is designed for use in courses on persons and domestic relations. It includes cases from various jurisdictions across North America. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, The Law of Persons and Domestic Relations; Part II, The Practice of Persons and Domestic Relations; Part III, The Regulation of Persons and Domestic Relations; Part IV, The Impact of Persons and Domestic Relations on Society; and Part V, The Future of Persons and Domestic Relations. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics.

The Facilitator's Guide

The Facilitator's Guide

Schein 2004 This guide is designed to be used in courses on leadership and managerial roles. It includes cases from various industries. The book is divided into five parts: Part I, The Role of the Manager; Part II, The Role of the Leader; Part III, The Role of the Manager in Practice; Part IV, The Role of the Leader in Practice; and Part V, The Future of Leadership and Managerial Roles. The book is designed for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in business ethics.

Philosophy and Policy Studies

Philosophy and Policy Studies