A Touch of His Love

Charles F. Stanley 2001-02-01 Accept the love of God that comes through Jesus, and you will accept the love of all other people. God’s love is passed on to others through one another. God’s love is the great force of ascension that joins Christ in body, soul, and spirit with the Father. God’s love is the only reason why men and women shall come to our rising. It is the magnet of all other forces in the world. Love plays host to faith, power, joy, rest and wisdom. When love endures, it always comes to pass. Love is patient and never fails. Love is the window of the recreated spirit of God’s man. Christ-like love will guide you to THE REALM OF REST. Don’t stop loving. Don’t be discouraged, you will get there if you remain patient. With love, we know that Heaven is certain, though we walk on Earth. Such a spiritual concept has been given very little spiritual revelation. In some cases, I have been asked why people who love always get stabbished in return. Then you did not love; you may have been stabbed because you were selfish and hoped for a certain reward. That is not love. Get your love walk straight. Love sits on the throne that judges the world. He sits on the throne of possibility. He is the miraculous. Love does not value bread as much as it values feeding the hungry. It does not expect man to reward him; it expects God to. Love does not reciprocate between the same people. Love is love. Love is all sufficient and always satisfied. John 13:24-35 34A new commandment I give unto you, That you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35BY THIS SHALL ALL MEN KNOW THAT YOU ARE MY DISCIPLES, if you have love one to another. By love, all men shall know that you are Christ’s disciples. Love graduates to greater revelation and truth from God. Divine love is God’s light in the world. The spirit of wisdom comes from love. At the same time, it is what makes a man prosperous. Love is the fountain of spiritual gifts. Wisdom and revelation come from love. That is reflected in Paul’s prayers to the saints below. Ephesians 1:15-17 BSforever I also, after I heard of your FAITH in the Lord Jesus, and LOVE unto all the saints, 16Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; 17that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the SPIRIT OF WISDOM and REVELATION in the knowledge of him. Love walk suffers when we don’t know why we love. Even when we get to know, we must grow in the knowledge of it. What can make us love as Christ is, growing in the knowledge of God’s love nature. We must know that love is our nature from God and its reward is also from God, not man. When I encounter challenging personalities, so I do not journey out of love, I always imagine myself in the spiritual realm, reigning with love. I can easily tolerate and be patient over anything, because in the spiritual realm, I know the outcome. You are always right when you are in love. Love is equal to nothing on Earth – love is God. Philipians 2:3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglorious; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Romans 12:9 Let your love be perfectly sincere. Regard with horror what is evil; cling to what is right. Perfect love casts out fear. It is the source of pleasure and joy. Love is above all things. 1 John 4:18 THERE IS NO FEAR IN LOVE, but perfect love casts out fear: because fear hath torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love. At rest, love is known. When love becomes mature, we walk the supernatural. The Holy Spirit and your spirit unite in love. Love is the image and likeness of God in His man. What makes us supermen and women on Earth is - love when love comes in, we are complete. Divine love brings God’s effect in man. 1 John 4:12 No one has ever seen God; but if you love one another, God lives in you and his love is made complete in us. One would be surprised if God was not love, or if He was love and our love was tested by loving Him alone. When we love as God would, we know God. Notice that every man has the nature of God. However, this nature is locked in some and needs to be free. Knowing the truth will make them free. Love is the way, the truth and the light. When we share the knowledge of God with others, we share the spirit of love. To know that you rest, you must walk in love. Our love is needed to unlock love in others. No doubt, love has been the most influential fact

Knowing the Love of Christ

Knowing God Is Knowing Love—Linda Stafford 2018-02-23 A short summary of the title of the book Knowing God Is Knowing Love. How does one write a book about knowing God? For Linda, it began with just one word or phrase chosen each day from her morning devotional readings. She used that one word as her mantra (her sacred counsel). The word given to her from the Holy Spirit helped her to react in a positive way to situations that arose during the day. At the end of each month, Linda lit a candle, said a prayer and with pen in hand, she allowed the Holy Spirit to guide what was written concerning each word. What transpired for Linda was a beautiful heartfelt journey of what grew in love and commitment to God. Through sharing her reflections and the treasures gleaned from her open, listening heart, Linda encourages readers to ponder what was written. Her simple concept of choosing one word each day will transform your life. In Knowing God Is Knowing Love, readers will be inspired to start choosing their own word to help them stay focused on being more loving and kind through their love for God and others. Whatever your denomination or church affiliation may be, Linda encourages all to be both loyal and true to their calling of loving God and loving one another.

The Book of Love—Daniel PROK 2020-11-28 It is a great honor and privilege to share this message of Love with you. I didn’t realize that I was on a love journey of Love until a few weeks before I received this Divine writing from Jesus the Christ directly into my mind for me to share with you. The journey of Love I have been on for the last 10 years has taken me from not loving myself, to self-love, to loving myself completely, to feeling loving and loveable to others, to feeling loved and adored by God, and most recently practicing being someone who loves all the time. All these layers and definitions of Love that I have been practicing and experiencing have improved my life tremendously...and then I received this Divine message of Love from Jesus! “But how do we know that it’s Jesus?”, you may ask. I know from the way the message came into my mind, and then through my heart and soul. The warmth of the Loving energy of Jesus is beyond anything I have felt in my human form. Also, these words are so Divinely stated that it is beyond me to come up with something this good! As for you, you will have a knowing as you read the words. Feel them with your Heart and Soul. Feel them with the depths of your being. You will know. This message takes God’s Love, and God’s Love within you, to a greater level of understanding, knowing, depth and expansion. Thank you for Jesus for sharing this beautiful message so that everyone, everywhere can experience the Love of God in the way that he has. God Bless you all with God’s Love! Daniel PROK

Knowing the Love of Christ—Michael Dauphinais 2002 This work offers a thorough introduction to the theology of St Thomas Aquinas in accessible language. It aims to fill a gap in the literature on Thomas – a comprehensive introduction to his thought written by theologians.

Love Defined—Daniel Rouse 2016-06-14 Love Defined is helping bring understanding of the divine love within. Love is the greatest gift given to mankind and came in the person of Jesus Christ. Every man, woman, boy and girl will benefit from knowing and understanding God’s love for them. We will answer some questions like; What is the difference between God’s love and man’s love? Who does God love? What are the attributes of God’s love? Can I do something to make God love me more? Is it possible to love others as God loves? And much more...

The Power of Love—G J Guillory 2020-09-11 I wrote this book to share with God’s people and all of humanity, the Love that God wants to give to all who are willing to come and submit their lives to Him. My deepest heart after becoming a believer in Christ was to see the divisions of the Body of Christ because of the lack of the knowledge of knowing Him. This knowing Him comes in fellowship with God and his Son Jesus Christ which unites us together as one. Therefore, I wrote this book to express four different ways God’s love was revealed to me: that we may know the “Power of Love.”

God of Love and God of Judgement—Stephen K. Moroney 2009-07-06 How can a God of love also be a God of judgment? Does God love everyone, what is the point of judgment? Does God change from being wrathful in the Old Testament to loving in the New Testament? Can we discern God’s judgments in current events, such as hurricanes and personal tragedies? Is it ever right for humans to judge? These are not just daunting issues for theologians to ponder. They are urgent questions for everyone. Our answers profoundly affect how we relate to God and how we live with one another. Coming to grips with these issues is vital for our spiritual journeys. Many people today emphasize God’s love and downplay his judgment. The problem with this approach is that God’s judgment is taught in the Book of Revelation and is a core part of the gospel preached by Jesus and his apostles. There are problems at the other end of the spectrum too, where we believe in a God of judgment who is not also a God of love. It is impossible for us to find spiritual peace when we live in constant dread of God, pictured as a harsh judge whom we can never please. This book calls us to embrace a more full, biblical image of God—one that joins his love and judgment together. Additionally, the book shows that, as those who are made in God’s image, we can fuse love and judgment together constructively in our own daily lives.

A major key in turning America back to God is found in the church receiving and operating in their spiritual inheritance. One of David’s favorite sayings is, “IF JESUS DIED TO GIVE IT TO ME, I WANT IT!” Can you say the same?

All Loves Excelling - John Bunyan 2020-07-28 Limited Time Promotional Offer All Loves Excelling All Loves Excelling is John Bunyan's sermon on Ephesians 3:17-18, "That ye may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge." It was first titled 'The Saints' Knowledge of Christs Love' and is worthy of being ranked alongside Sibbes and deals with a much neglected subject from the text. From The Forward: This is a new edition of John Bunyan's treatise on Ephesians 3:17-18 which he himself prepared for the press. It is taken from the second volume of Bunyan's works (George Offor edition) which was re-published in 1991. The text remains largely unaltered but slight adjustments have been made to ensure the text is easy to read. Even more importantly, the book's divisions, however, correspond to Bunyan's own layout of his material. The subject matter of this work which was first preached, is greatly needed today. On the one hand, experiences of the Spirit are being claimed from which the glory of the redeemer and the wonder of his love are quite absent, while on the other, an almost total attention to the understanding and practising of scripture truth is having the effect of marginalising the experiential element in true, spiritual knowledge. Bunyan's description of Christ's love to believers and how they ought to know it, cuts in all the above-mentioned directions. From some 440 Bible references he shows how knowing Christ's love is the message of Scripture and also the essence of heaven, partly possessed and expressed on earth. Those who know it are rich beyond measure and they are the people who 'sweeten the churches and bring glory to God and to religion'. About John Bunyan: John Bunyan (1628-1688) was born at Elstow, England, about a mile from Bedford, and became one of the most influential authors of the seventeenth century. Few writers in history have written so extensively, so widely, and with such depth of understanding and devotion. His work, containing some 440 Bible references, has been published in over 200 editions and reprinted over 100,000 times.

Growing Up Into Christ - Thom Gardner 2018-08-08 It has been popular in Christian culture to ask, “What would Jesus Do?” This study on spiritual growth finds that it is better to ask, “Who is Jesus Christ?” Believers in passionate pursuit of the heart of Jesus Christ will find a greater love that leads to deeper peace. Wholeness brings about right behavior more than right behavior alone brings about wholeness. This wholeness is based upon knowing and loving God. Loving God completely, the greatest of all commandments, requires an unobstructed view of God and His goodness. Unhealed areas in the hearts of believers form a veil, an obstruction between their faces and the face of God—a false concept of God implanted through past wounding or programming as interpreted through prayer. The apostle Paul writes, But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit. (2 Corinthians 3:18). To live in the personal presence of God is the goal of spiritual growth resulting in peace and transformation. In this Study you will learn… Peace depends upon knowing the love of God through Christ. Knowing the love of God flows from personally experiencing Christ. You experience Jesus Christ as you learn to quiet yourself, to listen to His voice, to be restored to become like Him. This is a work of the heart transformation leading to greater peace for those who passionately pursue the heart of Jesus Christ lovingly presented buy the author, a fellow follower of Jesus Christ.

Rooted - Brad Whitt 2015-01-27 This book is about how you can be rooted deeply in Christ. Here are some of the benefits you can look forward to as you become rooted in Christ: Stability. People who are deeply rooted will withstand the storms of life. They are like the wise man that built his house on a rock. They are not shaken by the storms of life. They are not “tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting” (Ephesians 4:14). Continual nourishment. Rooted people have a deep relationship with God and continually feeds them. They are like a tree, planted by the streams of water which bears its fruit in season (Psalm 1:1). Joy. Jesus said, “If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father’s commandments and abide in His love. These things have I spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full” (John 15:10-11). The happiest people on the planet are people who are rooted in Christ. Fruitfulness. Rooted plants are fruit-bearing plants. “I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing” (John 15:5). Jesus didn’t say we would be even more fruitful if we abide in Christ. He said that without Christ we can do nothing. Rooted in Christ, we will bear much fruit. It is an all or nothing deal. Peace. There is peace in knowing that your roots go down deep. There is peace in knowing you can withstand every drought and storm. “Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid” (John 14:27). The Bible describes it as a peace that passes all understanding (Philippians 4:6, 7). Assurance of our salvation. God’s will for every believer is that you have absolute confidence in your salvation. God wants you to know that you will go to Heaven when you die. Rooted people know. They don’t just hope; they know Spiritual growth. You can’t grow up unless your roots go down. Only rooted people grow. “That Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height—to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God” (Ephesians 3:17-19). Purpose: When our roots go down deep, we discover why God put us here. We discover that “We are God’s workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them” (Ephesians 2:10). We discover what good works God has prepared in advance for us to do. There is nothing like living life on purpose. Only rooted people know this joy. Being rooted has many benefits: stability, continual nourishment, joy, fruitfulness, peace, assurance of salvation, and purpose. How do we become rooted?

Overcome by His Love - Craig Snyder 2019-01-02 The love of Christ is too big to be measured. When I try to think about how big it is and who it is for, I am Overcome By His Love. After many years of ministry in local churches and extensive travel in the United States and overseas, I see something that Christians worldwide have in common. When they are born again and receive the life of Christ that has been given to them from eternity past. and believe that it is truly theirs, there is a joy and lightness in their life. Everything is different and they have come to know a peace within that leads to a smile on their face and skip in their step. Everyone and everything is beautiful to them, because this euphoria doesn’t just last long. Some people will say it is because they don’t know the principles that the Bible teaches. I don’t think that it is at all. When I was saved, my desires changed without anyone except the Holy Spirit giving me direction. In fact, in the beginning everyone was so amazed at the change in my life, all they did was watch me. Life was great and I was having fun living my new Christian life. People that I had known for many years began to change also. Some after watching me and realizing what had taken place in my life, others began to believe and were born again. Others decided without consciously thinking about it that, this new lifestyle was not for them and pulled away from me. They still “liked” me and I them, but things were not the same and we were not close anymore. One thing I now know looking back, was there was not a religious bone in my body. I was going to church because I wanted to go. I was telling people about Jesus because it was the desire of my heart. I was reading my Bible because God spoke to me so much when I did. I could understand what He was saying and it made perfect sense to me. This is how many people start out when they are “saved”. What happens is that they start trying to change their life, until all that will most certainly expel them to failure. Not only will it doom them to failure, it is also unnecessary in the life of the believer. What is this thing that has caused so many Christians to live in defeat and discouragement? The thing that ultimately leads to defeat, discouragement and lack of peace in the life of a believer is religion. Religion tells you that there is something you need to do to be right with God when God says that He has already done it. You only need to believe Him that He has done it. Religion tells you that you must keep the law to be right with God when God tells that the purpose of the law was to show you how much you needed a savior and that there was no hope without Him. You couldn’t live up to the law to be saved and you can’t live up to the law after you are saved. You have good news for the believer, you don’t have to live up to the law; Jesus did and He counted it to you. He gave you His righteousness, His position, His sonship because He wanted to. You could not have even believed Him if He had given you the gift of faith, Ephesians 2:8-9. It is a free gift not deserved or worked for by man. You couldn’t earn it and it was freely given to you. What a great Grace gift, the ability to believe in Him. We are going to explore who we are in Christ and just what our position is in Him in this book. Also, it is my desire that Christians that will regain that child-like faith that they had when they were first saved and will again come to walk in the peace in Christ that is theirs.Craig Snyder

KNOWING GOD—James Tarter

When Love Hits Town—Davo Roberts 2019-08-08 Can you imagine what your town, your nation, this world would be like if Christians loved as they are commanded by God to love others? That is, to love all other people, as Jesus Christ loved people. To love other people, as acts of obedience to Him. In the Bible, God’s love is revealed. The Apocalypse John, known as the Apostle of command by God to love others? That is, to love all other people, as Jesus Christ loved people. To love other people, as acts of obedience to Him. In the Bible, God’s love is revealed. The Apocalypse John, known as the Apostle of God’s love, does not simply say that God loves, but rather he clearly states that God is love (1 John 4:16). You may well be asking now, a question such as: “How is God, love?” God is the Holy Trinity, three persons in one, which is a living, vibrant community which is sustained by its interactions and those interactions are of the best and true nature of God. Every activity of the Trinity is an expression of love. God loves himself in this nature. Throughout the Bible, God’s love is repeatedly expressed over and over again. Knowing how is God’s love been? God has shown his love supremely in that he has given his Son to be the Savor of the world. Therefore, if a person takes up the opportunity that offers to move into the sphere of his love, they can know and enjoy God in a personal relationship. God had only one Son, Jesus Christ, and he sent him on a rescue mission to seek the lost and to reconcile people to God. That is love in action. The lover dying for the ones he loves. The Bible is a unified message of love that the Lord’s love is for people. A message which reveals that God’s love is for all people, everywhere. Why?
Because God is love. For centuries, God’s chosen people, Israel, looked ahead to a time when the Messiah would come to save and to rescue them. That Messiah, we believe and trust in, is the person of history we know as Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the most important figure in human history. Almost everybody has an opinion about him —whether positive, negative or indifferent. The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell us of his life. We explore who Jesus said that he was, who others said that he was and why it matters. We then go on to the book of Acts, looking at the events following His departure. What, or rather, who gave the impetus for the early Church?
What was the catalyst for the mission of the Church? A mission which began with the 12 disciples, spread throughout the known world and consequently down through history. What were the events caused by the small group of Jesus’ followers, which caused such upheaval, causing the then known world to change comprehensively?The story continues until today. Jesus Christ, who was and is the Light of the World, has hit town. The lightning bolt of God’s love has come to the world in the person of history, we know as Jesus Christ.
Come on in and see what happens when God comes down. A love exemplified and revealed in and through the life of Jesus Christ, and as evidenced in the early Church. For your convenience, there is a list of all references and quotes from the Bible. The list is in alphabetical order, primarily to help those not used to looking up the Bible.

Knowing God Personally—Deaouth Elias 2014-09-29 This book is about how much God loves human beings, even the ones who don’t know him. He lives. It is all in the Bible, Old and New Testament. God guides us through our entire life. How to overcome temptations? It is not easy. How to fix problems and overcome suffering? What does it mean to have any kind of relationship? What does it mean to have faith and religion? I also have dreams, miracles, and inspiration—about money and richness. I have the preching from the Ten Commandments, the way I understand it. I have stories from personal experience. How to put our hope in God? In this book, I am explaining how much God is concerned, especially about the sufferer, the poor, the less fortunate, the homeless, the sick, the orphans, the unborn, also how much God wants to be our brother’s keeper. It also discusses the concept of loving your neighbor. This book will bring joy and happiness in many hearts. It will also bring mercy and peace into hearts of many. It is all from God. For Christians, we know God personally because of Jesus, and he is our Savior.

Experiencing God through prayer—Sami Mike 2021-03-10 Experiencing God through prayer Knowing and Doing the Will of God inside this book are great insights that will shift you into another realm of faith and help you build capacity in prayers to get answers to your prayer requests. It is time for the world to dive deeper in faith and come into the proper knowledge of God. I await your testimony as you study this faith manual. Your Guide to Finding Spirituality in this present world An average 21st-century believer has replaced spirituality with religion.
We engage in all manner of things we call spiritual activities today to show our commitment level, believing that this will help us stay close to God. We have deviated from true spirituality, solitude, meditation, prayer and study for God, our faith in Him. It is simply a lifestyle of faith, for, without faith, it is impossible to please God, and if can’t please God, we cannot walk with Him in truth and Spirit. Without faith, we can’t believe in the word of God, and without our belief, we can’t obey. Religion has kept many Christians in bondage today, doing all manner of things to seek God. No man can be fruitful in this kingdom through the practice of religion. Faith is what liberates us from every oppression of the devil; from the burden and weights the devil is using to drag you down, but the Bible says come unto me all ye that thirst, labor and heavy laden and I shall give you rest. Every man who desires to enjoy intimacy with God through the Holy ghost and desires to do exploits for God must stay and build his capacity and faith. Faith is the only tool a man can engage in enjoying a life of the supernatural. Inside this book are great insights that will shift you into another realm of faith and help you build capacity in prayers to get answers to your prayer requests. It is time for the world to dive deeper in faith and come into the proper knowledge of God. I await your testimony as you study this faith manual.

Love In The Middle—Lavenia Niblett 2018-10-29 Every one of us desire love. We all have someone or something that we love. We desire the love of our spouse, our parents, our children. We all have love for family members, friends, or associates. However, there is no greater love than the love that our Heavenly Father has for us: agape loveas unconditional, enduring love. He loved us so much that he sent his only begotten Son to be sacrificed so that we could have life everlasting. He was crucified by sinners, and with sinners, Jesus The Christ hung between two thieves’’’The Man In The Middle.’’ This makes our perception of love appear minute and empty. Love is a choice. We get to choose who we love. Jesus chose to love us regardless of the sins we’ve committed, despite what we’ve done or what’s been done to us. Love requires action. “Love covers over a multitude of sins” (1 Peter 4:8). The Lord loves and cares for us in the good times and in difficult times. Trust Him. He is faithful, He is wise, He is compassionate, and He will never leave us alone, regardless of how strong the winds of life may blow. “Cast your burdens and your cares upon Him, because He cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7). God is all-powerful and all-knowing.
He knows what we are in need of, and He possesses the power to supply all our needs. Man will disappoint you, hurt you, and oftentimes despise you. However, man cannot destroy the love that God has for us. “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?” (Romans 8:35). The Apostle Paul says that God's ways are beyond us. “We cannot search the unsearchable, we cannot trace out the untraceable. For from Him, and through Him and to Him are all things: To Him be the glory forever!” (Romans 11:36 NIV).

Competing Realities—Nathaniel D. Fyre We have been juxtaposed between two competing realities. The higher and ultimate reality is the Word of God while the lesser is the world perceived by the limited, natural man. Our struggle occurs when the “word of the senses” contradicts the “word of the Word.” How are we to respond when these two worlds clash?

Saint Dominic’s Way of Life—Patrick Mary Briscoe, OP, 2021-06-01 Few Catholics today know much about Saint Dominic, who died eight hundred years ago in 1221. Unlike Francis of Assisi, Teresa of Avila, or Ignatius of Loyola, Dominic did not leave a deposit of writings to be examined and built upon. Yet this medieval Spaniard still has much to teach us today, and we see this in the way of life he left to the Church. Dominic offers a rich approach to Christian living, not just for members of the Order of Preachers, the religious order he founded, but for all Catholics. His dedication to prayer, penance, and the Word of God, and his love of neighbor, form the deep foundation of his project of being conformed to God. By following in Dominic’s footsteps, we too can discover how to live with a heart that is undivided, seeking God first in all things. “The twenty-first century remains in need of the witness and ministry of Saint Dominic, the thirteenth-century priest who consecrated his life to the sharing of saving truth. Fortunately, Fathers Briscoe and Janczyk have produced a highly readable and inspiring book that enables the men and women of our own time to discover the graces that Dominic continues to bring to us as an instrument of God, the author of grace. In Saint Dominic, the contemplative preacher of grace, we can find a spiritual father who will teach us to know and love the Lord Jesus, who is himself Saving Truth.” — Father Sebastian White, OP, editor-in-chief, Magnificat “This beautiful book allows us to get to know Saint Dominic better, who was so close to God and so full of compassion for all the sufferings of his time. He is a shining example of what we are called to do today: seek God with all our heart to pour out the balm of his merciful love on all the plaques of our world.” — Father Jacques Philippe, best-selling author and retreat master ABOUT THE AUTHORS Father Patrick Mary Briscoe, OP, and Father Jacob Bertrand Janczyk, OP, are cohosts of the lively Dominican friars’ podcast Godsplaining. Father Patrick serves as deputy senior editor of Aleteia.org and associate chaplain at Providence College. Father Jacob Bertrand is the director of vocations of the Dominican Province of St. Joseph.

Crazy Love (Simplified Chinese)—Francis Chan 2014-07-21 Read Crazy Love in Simplified Chinese! Now you can experience Francis Chan’s life-changing message in this Simplified Chinese version of Crazy Love. God is love. Crazy, relentless, all-powerful love. Have you ever wondered if we’re missing it? It’s crazy, if you think about it. The God of the universe—the Creator of nitrogen and pine needles, galaxies and E-minor—loves us with a radical, unconditional, self-sacrificing love. And what is our typical response? We go to church, sing songs, and try not to cuss. Whether you’ve verbalized it yet or not, we all know something’s wrong. Does something deep inside your heart long to break free from the status quo? Are you hungry for an authentic faith that addresses the problems of our world with tangible, even radical, solutions? God is calling you to a passionate love relationship with Himself. Because the answer to religious complacency isn’t working harder at a list of do’s and don’ts—it’s falling in love with God. And once you encounter His love, as Francis describes it, “you will never be the same.” Because when you’re wildly in love with someone, it changes everything. Knowing God's Will—Gary Alan Burch 2017-01-03 The Christians I come in contact with almost unanimously want to know God's will for their lives. They often struggle, sometimes heart wrenchingly, to grab on to what God wants them to do. The questions of how to know God's will continually come up in Bible studies, in Sunday school, in pastor's messages to the congregation, and in various other ways. People seem to be continually searching for God's will, but not really finding it. So the question begins to be“How do I know God's will?” Why is there such a struggle? In actuality God has made it easier for us than you probably realize. God has given us such a golden opportunity to know him more personally than any other generation before Christ. God does not want us to struggle to know His will and His will. Find how to strengthen your relationship with God, understand what He wants to do for you and become His Bride. Salvation with Love, Jesus Joy D. Siano 2014-08-25 In this uncertain time there is One you may depend on for now and eternity. He is the same yesterday, today and forever - stable and dependable in every way. Prayerfully, this book will introduce you to Him. Jesus Christ is alive and loves you. Call upon Him while He is near. - Isaiah 55:6 Dear Reader, There is a special revelation for backsliders in this book. I urge you to read it and let the Holy Spirit revive you and your personal relationship with Jesus, our Loving Savior. He did not come to give us religion; He came to give us life, which is in Him. He came so that we should know Him personally and know how much He loves us. Receive His grace to walk in victory by faith and the power of His Holy Spirit. I know there are people out there who once walked with Jesus as out of the Book of Acts and you yearned for everyone to know Jesus. If you have ever been disappointed by people, misguided by religion, overwhelmed by condemnation - dont give up. You were under law, not grace. For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. - John 1:17 KJV Give the real Jesus a chance. He is the One - and there is only one - Who truly loves you unconditionally: the Jesus you met at your salvation. Just to truly know Jesus is the abundant life, and you know and remember, by the Holy Spirit. Trust Him again, forever. In Him, br>

John - 2017-02-09 Jesus has commanded every believer to make disciples. Part of making disciples is teaching them to obey all that Christ has commanded. The John study helps the disciple of Christ accomplish this in the following three ways:
1). Know God through Jesus' commands. Obviously before you can obey Jesus' commands, you need to know what they are. By going through the John study, the student of the Bible will learn how to properly interpret the Scriptures. It is only through correctly interpreting the Scriptures that someone can come to know God by knowing Jesus Christ.2). Love God by loving others. The love of God will naturally overflow into other's lives as we get to know Him through Jesus Christ. As you grow, you will naturally desire to see others come to know the Father through Jesus. You can begin their journey of knowing God through the reproducible John study. And then you can help them do the same.3). Obey Jesus' commands. While the student of the Bible is learning the commands of Christ, they are also being renewed and transformed into Jesus Christ by the Holy Spirit through the Truth of Scripture. The student of the Bible will become increasingly motivated to obey Jesus as their love for God continually grows as they get to know Him through Christ.
